EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past fourteen years, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellencies is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

THE DUPES.

We do not know the Mr. King, who represents (so-called) the county of Lincoln, in the mongrel Convention, but, whatever there may be to say against him, we have this much to say in his behoof, viz: That he took a proper stand on the question of electing Judges by the people, and that he exhibited discernment in penetrating the designs of the Yankee Radical element in the body. He stated, in effect, that the brunt of opposition to our old system of elections came from the Yankee adventurers, who have squatted in our midst, and that the fact was conclusive evidence that they were hankering after the offices, for themselves. Here, for one moment, let us qualify. We apply the term "Yankee adventurers" only to that set of Puritanical and lantern-jawed hypocrites, who come among us, with professions of love for the negro on their lips, and with hearts full of evil and bitterness towards the whites,—who seek to uproot our venerable and wise systems and reform them in such a manner as will best subserve their own mercenary designs,—who are seeking to sow the seeds of discord and dissension between the races in the South,—who, acknowledging themselves only the equals, are really the inferiors, of the negro,—and who are never so happy as when they are plotting against the safety and security of the white people of the South. We have many excellent Northern men among us, who have come in since the war, who are exemplary and useful citizens; but we have still more of the class which we have described, and, having used the negro ballot to accomplish their sinister purposes, they will generally be found in the Southern mongrel Conventions, hatching mischief and fomenting strife, at the same time that they are filling their own pockets, or in order that they may do so.

We say that Mr. King exhibited some discernment, and we desire to put the case on record, because it is a somewhat exceptional one. The majority of his native Radical associates have had the wool so completely pulled over their eyes by their shrewder Yankee allies, that they have no judgment or independence of their own.—They have fallen as complete a prey to the superior chicane of the imported leaders, as a green horn would to the devices of a city thimble-rigger or Peter Funk. Versed in all the arts of wire-pulling, log-rolling and pipe-laying, as practiced so successfully in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts or New York, the latter have imposed upon the weak understandings of the native dupes, by the exhibition of a finesse, of which the poor ignorants know nothing, and at which they stand amazed.

We do not care to believe that any portion of our native white population would really give in their adhesion wittingly to the present order of things,—unless in the case of some smart and designing knave, who, despairing, on account of his conscious deserts, of attaining advancement or reward at the hands of the white people, has thrown himself into the embrace of the negro. They will wake up, one of these days, to a sense of the enormity of their delusion, and will curse their foreign masters, who have led them by the nose so unresistingly. As it is, can they not see that, by Yankee hocus pocus, they have been pilloried before the detesting gaze of 100,000 white voters in North Carolina, in the attitude of inviting negroes, who cannot read or write, to the Gubernatorial chair, of dodging a prohibition forbiding intermarriage between the races, and of condemning, so far as they have power, white men to serve in the militia under negro officers? Words cannot describe the lasting scorn which awaits this Convention from the white men, women and children of this State. It will stink in the nostrils of decent people, hereafter, like the foulest exhalations of a sewer.

MESSRS. DOOLITTLE AND HENDRICKS.—The speeches of these two gentlemen, in the Senate of the United States, form an invulnerable coat of mail against the attacks of the Radicals. Nothing more is wanted, in the way of argument, to spread broadcast over the land, than these two speeches furnish. Facts will be needed, perhaps, additional facts, to corroborate and illustrate their arguments, but certainly nothing more is necessary to trip the heels of any Radical, however plausible. We hope the Central Democratic Committee, at Washington, will have them both printed in large numbers and extensively circulated. They are unanswerable. Mr. Hendricks remarked, in the course of his speech, that Mr. Doolittle had received higher encomiums and endorsements of the unanswerable character of his speech, than he had before known.—Ten or twelve Radical Senators had spoken since Mr. Doolittle, and yet every one of them had made an effort to answer Mr. D. His speech is still unanswered, and in the attempt to answer Mr. Hendricks' speech, they will find it equally hard work. Those who order documents from Washington, for the canvass, should be sure to order Mr. Doolittle's and Mr. Hendricks' speeches. Mr. Hendricks has completely demolished his colleague, Morton.

IT is said that Judge Tourgee's legal argument, (see proceedings,) in the so-called Convention, was so powerful, on yesterday, that Gen. Canby and Staff, unable to stand it, were compelled to leave during its delivery. The Judge, in embryo, should deal out his great learning in broken doses.

* * *

It is rumored in Washington that Secretaries Seward and McCulloch have requested the President to accept their resignations.

OUR JUDICIARY.

Of nothing has North Carolina been prouder, than of the integrity, high bearing and ability of her Judiciary. Never, in her history, have any of her Judges soiled their ermine by unworthy or disreputable acts.—Their uniform purity has secured, in all instances, prompt acquiescence among our people in all their decisions, and nothing so soon touches the pride of our people, as any reflection from abroad touching the integrity of our Judiciary.

Heretofore, the selection and appointment of the Judiciary has been at the farthest remove possible from the chicanery and the manipulations of the demagogue, and no member of our Legislatures has been found base enough, at any time, whatever may have been his partizan predilections, to vote for a man for a Judge, whom he believed morally or mentally unfit for the position.

The white people of North Carolina, we are sure, desire no change in the manner of electing Judges. The pleas which are entered, on behalf of the "dear people," in favor of electing Judges by the popular vote, never have come from the people themselves. They have never demanded any such departure from our time-honored customs. These pleas come from the demagogues and tricksters of the times, who have their ends to serve. Place North Carolina under the control of the Radical party, as the Convention now in session is seeking to do, and what must be the character of our Supreme and Superior Court Judges? Would any one of the present Supreme or Superior Court Judges allow his name to be put in the canvass, to be bandied before the ignorant mass of blacks in the State? Would any respectable lawyer in the State place himself at the will of the ignorant and debased voters of the State, ruled by Loyal Leagues? We cannot believe it. We claim that they have too much self respect. Should, however, any consent to ignore all their former claims to position, and go down into the mire of the "black and tan" party, for the sake of office, we advertise them, in advance, that the scorn and contempt of the community will follow them to their graves. We protest, in the name of the good people of North Carolina, against the gross attempt, which the Radical Convention is making, to force upon our State a Judiciary, whose respectability and worth can only be of the type of the ignorance and depravity which will elect it.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATION.

No act of the President of the Convention, Mr. Cowles, is, in our estimation, so highly censurable, as the selection he has made of the Committee to investigate the rumors in regard to black mail demanded by Mr. Durham's resolution. The Committee, as named by him, consists of Mr. Durham, Ashley, the Pilgrim, and Harris, the negro delegate from Wake. It is perfectly manifest that the object of putting Ashley and Harris on the Committee with Mr. Durham, is to defeat and prevent the investigation. After what has transpired, it must be apparent to every one that Mr. Durham's relations to Ashley are such, that he can have no conference with him. Mr. A. forced upon Mr. Durham the necessity of denouncing him as having been guilty of a palpable falsehood; and Harris, Mr. Durham could not touch with a pair of oyster tongs.

MILEAGE.

A correspondent sends us the following:

"Editors of the Sentinel:—Please ascertain the mileage of the different delegates of the "so-called" Convention, as cashed at the National Bank of Raleigh, and, when you have the chance, publish it. This would be a capital campaign document in this State. You will surprise the very elect. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Q.

We have, for some days, been anxious to know how the payment of the mileage of the members of the Convention came to be assumed or effected by the National Bank in this city. Banks and brokers loan money, now, at a large discount, and yet we learn that each delegate receives, at the counter of the Bank, the full amount of mileage to which he is entitled. With the Bank, of course, it is a plain business matter. It must receive due consideration for its advances. How is this effected? By whose agency was this arrangement secured? One of the "faithful" has been here for several days, proposing to discount the per diem of members. How he has succeeded, we have not learned. We shall be obliged to our friends to let us have the points.

ALABAMA ELECTION.—The National Intelligencer, alluding to the probable defeat of the Constitution in Alabama, and the rejoicing of the friends of the white race over it, says:

"The white race in Alabama are, we think, premature in their exultation, and the Radical papers (not in the secret) equally hasty in their grief, though much of the latter is probably intended as a blind.—That the Constitution will be defeated in Alabama, despite the fraudulent negro votes cast for it, we think highly probable. That the result will be so declared by General Meade and his subordinates, we very much question. We have no doubt, also, that the call for a Convention was defeated in Mississippi, and in Florida; but the military had the counting of the ballots, and at the last moment the result was made all right. So, we fear, it will be in Alabama. Against the almost unanimous protest of the white race a Constitution will probably be foisted by fraud upon the people of that State, disfranchising not merely a third of the white population by the tests of the infamous constitutional amendment, but also every white man, whether a Unionist or not during the war, who will not take a solemn oath pledging himself to accept for all time the doctrine of political and civil equality of the two races. Under such a test as this, all but a very few base white men would be disfranchised, and the poll would stand ten blacks at least to one white voter."

* * *

ARRESTED.—Two white men were arrested at Swan Quarter, Hyde County, a few days since, on suspicion of being implicated in the robbery of Mr. Hodges, of this County, which occurred a few weeks ago. At the time of their arrest they were selling gold and silver for greenbacks at par.—Wash. (N. C.) Conservative.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 12, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. — Eppes, (negro.)

RESOLUTIONS, ORDINANCES, &C.

Mr. Forkner, a resolution that the Committee on the Judiciary report an article for the Constitution, permitting the citizens of this State to practice in the Courts, on proving a good moral character and paying the fees. Lies over.

Mr. Franklin, a resolution in favor of E. H. Ray, late Sheriff of Wake county. Lies over.

Mr. Bryan, an ordinance in favor of all Sheriffs; of which notice was given yesterday.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, was opposed to the passage of such a measure.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, favored it.

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend, by allowing them to collect taxes prior to '61.

Mr. Welker favored Mr. Tourgee's amendment.

Mr. Moore opposed it.

Galloway, (negro,) moved to amend by excepting the county of Brunswick.

Mr. Tourgee withdrew his amendment.

Galloway, (negro,) explained his amendment, stating that the Sheriff of Brunswick had asked for no relief, and, besides, he was an "obstructionist." He had, to his certain knowledge, prevented people from registering and voting.

Mr. Hodnett was opposed to the whole matter. He did not approve of the course of indulging Sheriffs in going on in a careless and negligent manner. Besides, the ignorant people could be imposed on.

Mr. Hare explained the intention of the measure. It was only extending time for collecting taxes, and he hoped the gentlemen on this floor, who had been so rampant for relief, would afford some relief by extending time to men who have paid money out of their own pockets in payment of the taxes, and now wished to collect it.

Galloway, (negro,) withdrew his amendment.

The ordinance, as it originally stood, was then adopted.

Mr. Sweet moved that the Report of the Committee on Legislature be made the special order for Monday next, at 11 o'clock. Agreed to.

The hour of 11 having arrived, the Chair announced that the report of the Committee on Suffrage was the special order.

The Chairman of that Committee being unwell, Mr. Rich moved to postpone until Tuesday next.

Mr. Candler moved to amend by making it Saturday next. Lost.

Mr. Rich's motion [illegible] put to a vote and sustained.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The Report of the Committee on the Judiciary, containing two resolutions, in regard to the distinction between actions at Law and suits in Equity, testing the sense of this Convention, was considered, viz:

1st. As to the distinction between actions at Law and suits in Equity, and that the forms of all such actions and suits shall be abolished, and there should be but one form of civil action.

2nd. The distinctions between actions at Law and suits in Equity now existing should not be abolished.

[While Mr. Tourgee was speaking, advocating the former proposition, Maj. General Canby was announced. He was received with the usual honors. The President welcomed him in a short speech, to which the General very briefly and courteously replied. A recess was taken, and the delegates were introduced.]

Mr. Tourgee resumed, stating that as he was the youngest man in the House, of the legal profession, and was now advocating a radical change, therefore he was placed in rather an embarrassing situation. In regard to the cry that innovation was dangerous to the liberties of the people, he cited the case of Sir Thomas More, against whom a hue and cry was raised, when he introduced what was called the "vulgar tongue," and now, to-day, the same howls were heard, whenever there was a change proposed. He next alluded to the charge that had been uttered, upon this floor, that they were trying to incorporate measures into the Constitution, merely to catch the popular vote, regardless of right, justice, wisdom and prudence. Those assertions were made by a certain class of men, who wished only to embarrass the Convention and bring it into odium. In relation to the matter more immediately under discussion, he stated that in seventeen States of this Union, civilization and common sense had overridden the prejudices and bigotry of by-gone years.—The rights and wrongs of their citizens were enforced in the same Court and by the same process. The present jumble of Saxon, French and bad Latin, used in our law books, taken from the English system, illustrated the axiom of Talleyrand, that language was given to conceal our thoughts, not to express them. He was sorry that a report had been circulated that this measure would increase costs. The reverse was the very reason that this measure was adopted in the other States, to which he had alluded. It had been said that he (Tourgee) had said that it was a fine thing for lawyers but a bad thing for those who were not. He repeated the assertion, for he alluded to pettifoggers—a class of men whom he despised above all other reptiles, (!) &c., &c.

Mr. Rodman said it was rather singular that a member of the profession should insinuate to such an intelligent (!) body as this, that all the rest of the bar were devoted to insatiate greed of money, excepting himself. Mr. R. was not willing to put into this Constitution things that were repulsive and odious to the people. He wished to produce a good and wise Constitution, that the people would ratify, as it was the only and the shortest way of getting back into the Union. He would oppose the incorporation of such a measure into the Constitution: 1st, because it did not belong there, but to an act of the Legislature; and, 2nd, because he did not think it right of itself. He alluded to the high standing of the bar of North Carolina, and their universal willingness to assist, with aid and counsel, those who were too poor to pay for the services of a lawyer.

Mr. R. next argued the objections he had raised, at some length. In regard to the fees of lawyers of this State and New York, he had been informed, by good authority, that a small case here, probably costing from 15 to 20 dollars, would cost there fully $200. A gentleman had told him that, for merely asking information in regard to affixing a stamp, he had to pay $10 for the information. He perfectly agreed with Mr. Tourgee in wishing to accelerate the actions of the Courts of justice, but he could not see how the views of the gentleman would accomplish that end. It would create confusion, annoy the people, and he (Mr. R) would oppose incorporating anything into the Constitution so fatally demolishing to our whole system, that has worked so well and justly elicited the praise of the bar of the whole country, and with which our people are perfectly well satisfied.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, claimed to know as much about the sentiments of the people of North Carolina as the gentleman from Guilford, (Mr. T.) That gentleman seemed to have a mania to fix upon the people of this State certain customs, simply because the Northern States had seen fit to establish them. He protested against this wholesale butchery of all of our time-honored, universally beloved and revered Judicial system. Our people had steered clear of the foolish sentimentalism that had overrun some of the Northern States.

Mr. Abbott said he would move the indefinite postponement of this matter, as he did not think they should deal with this matter in the Constitution. To do it, would lay an embargo upon the Legislature, in considering the matter. He was in favor of some alteration in the practice in this State, but did not see how the abolishment of the distinction between the Courts would materially affect the cheapness or celerity of justice. He thought they should be very cautious how they tampered with such institutions. He did not array himself against the measure, and, at the same time, he did not sympathize with the remarks of the gentleman from Guilford. He was not afraid of improvement or innovation, but this was too grave a matter to step into with such boldness as the gentleman from Guilford would have us. He wished to leave the coming Legislature free and untrammelled. They had enough legitimate business to occupy their time.

Mr. Tourgee said to postpone the matter would be to leave it just where it stood; and when the report came up again, all this would have to be gone over with anew.

Mr. Abbott, at the request of the Chairman of the Committee, in order to get at a direct vote, withdrew his motion to postpone.

Hood, (negro,) did not see the propriety of making the proposed change now. They were taking up time in discussing this measure that should be devoted to things that more immediately concerned them.

Galloway, (negro,) said that it was an unheard of thing, that a Committee should come before a body, asking instructions.—Why did they not do, as other Committees, in producing a majority and a minority report? Men were too afraid of risking their chances of future office and emoluments, to risk an honest and straight-out opinion.—The discussion, yesterday and to-day, was a mere matter of nothing, as the whole ground would have to be gone over with again, when the Committee presented their final report. All of this debate was expending the people's money, merely to give certain men (Tourgee?) prominence. He (Galloway, negro,) was on the Judiciary Committee, but knew no more about the report than what was in Heaven, and, God knows, he was not in the right road to know what that was! He thought there was an evident disposition, on the part of the Committee, to muzzle certain members of it.

He moved to recommit, but withdrew the motion, to allow Mr. King, of Lenoir, to make a few remarks.

Mr. King said he wished the Judiciary should remain unchanged, with the exception of electing magistrates, and he hoped Galloway (negro) would withdraw his motion to recommit, in order to get at a vote.

Galloway (negro) wouldn't, and called the previous question.

The call was sustained.

The question was upon the 1st resolution abolishing the distinction between Courts of Law and Courts of Equity. The yeas and nays were called and resulted, yeas 50, nays 38.

Galloway (negro) moved to take a recess until half past seven this evening.—Lost.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) called up his resolution, of yesterday, limiting speeches to 15 minutes, without permission of the House, and that no one shall speak more than once upon the same subject, unless by permission of the House.

The Chair decided it was an amendment to the rules and required a majority of all the members.

Harris said he would appeal from that decision.

The Chair said he would see how many voted in favor of it, and if there was not a sufficient number, then Harris (negro) could appeal.

The question was then put and there was not a sufficient number voting, under the ruling of the Chair.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, did not think the resolution was an amendment to the rules or that it came in conflict with them.

After a good deal of explanation and wrangling, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) said that he had been convinced as to the error of his position and would withdraw his appeal.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

PROGRESS OF CONGRESSIONAL RECONSTRUCTION SOUTH.—The Congressional policy of reconstruction South seems to be in a queer way just at present. Alabama has been voting on the new constitution for several days past, and taking the votes polled thus far as a basis of calculation, it is not unlikely the measure will be defeated by lacking some twenty or twenty-five thousand ballots of the necessary number to insure ratification. In some districts the whites refrained from voting altogether, except where white radicals were nominated for office. There the candidates unanimously voted for themselves, to the number of sixteen in one instance. Unless Gen. Meade extends still further the time for voting the Alabama constitution may be said to have gone by the board, and it is a question whether an extension will much enhance its prospects of success ultimately. Congress, however, may come in and help the Alabama radicals out of their slough.

The Florida Convention has framed a new constitution in secret session, without a quorum of members. It is literally a "dark lantern" affair, with lantern jawed Northern radicals as the wire workers—a miserable office scramble from beginning to end.

The Arkansas Convention has made a virtue of necessity and repudiated amalgamation, the blacks contending that the time had not yet arrived when they were willing to consent to mingle their blood with that of the poor whites.

The South Carolina conventionists are in a joyful mood, having had their board bills paid and their pocket-books lined afresh.—The black members are very gay and Pompeyish.

The conventions in Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Louisiana are advancing in easy stages under the impetus given by the infusion of funds. They all appear to be hard at work revolutionizing the old order of things and establishing the framework of a government in which the emancipated negro will be the corner stone and the radical white the key-stone. The edifice, when completed, will be open for public inspection by the free white voters of the North.—N. Y. Herald.

* * *

JOHN K. GRAHAM, Esq.—Through some inadvertence on the part of the Secretaries in making out the proceedings of the Conservative Convention at Raleigh last week, we observe that the name of this gentleman, as one the delegates from Rowan, is omitted in the printed report. This is doubtless a matter of very little consequence to Mr. Graham, but we think it due to the people that they should know who have devoted their time and means to their service in times like this. There is no truer and better Conservative, and no more patriotic citizen in the county, than Mr. Graham. He will do good service as one of the canvassers of this county in the approaching campaign.—Old North State.

REMOVAL OF THE X P G's DISABILITIES.

"Drill them until their legs get limber! stir them up! Blow the fife! Beat the drum! Do something to arouse their latent courage; if they have any. Coax and urge, and drive out all who ought to go."—Standard, July 17, 1861.

"But our course is clear. It is our sincere wish now, as it has been from the first, to see the Confederate government maintained and perpetuated in its integrity and purity, as it come from the hands of its friends."—Standard, Feb. 11, 1863.

IS PEACE DESIRABLE?

"Every one says it is. We are fighting for peace. But we can have no peace unless it comes to us as a self-governing people. How shall we obtain it? By resting on our arms? By desertion and straggling, and all kinds of expedients to avoid service? By waiting for the Northwest to secede from the Northeast? By depending on foreign intervention? Fellow-citizens, soldiers, these are not the roads to peace.—We shall obtain this great blessing only when we shall have thoroughly defeated the enemy at all points, and endured the privations, the losses, the sufferings of war until the enemy shall have despaired of success.—This is the road to peace. There seems to be no other road to it."—Standard, March [illegible], 1863.

RIOTS AT THE NORTH.

The great bulk of the rioters were National Democrats, for Gov. Seymour addressed them as his "friends." It was the declaration by the people, first against despotism, and in favor of free government: Secondly, against the new aristocracy at the North which has been built up by army contracts at the expense of the blood and treasure of the people, and thirdly against the idea that more white men must be sacrificed in an idle and wicked attempt to free the negroes.—Standard, July 22., 1863.

DESERTIONS FROM THE ARMY.

"We have written and published more articles urging our men to stand by their colors and never to desert under any circumstances, than any editor of the State.—Standard, Aug. 19th., 1863.

"The Petersburg Express speaks of the Standard as a "disaffected Southern journal." If the Express means to say that we are "disaffected" towards the Confederate government, it does us great injustice. "Denunciations of President Davis" do not imply disaffection to the government.—Standard, Aug. 26th., 1863.

TO THE PUBLIC.

"I now declare, as I have frequently done, that I am a sincere and steadfast friend to the Confederate government, and that whatever may be the result of the terrible ordeal through which it is passing, I will be among the last to desert it.—Standard, Oct. 7, 1863.

GRANT.

Gen. Grant accomplished everything by numbers, nothing by skill. Out of the army, he has never given the slightest evidence of abilities. In his native town nobody knew him. In civil life he made no mark. He is dull in conversation; he has no dignity of bearing; he has no geniality and popular warmth of manners to compensate for his want of dignity; he has little political knowledge; he has no capacity to enjoy works of genius: he is, in short, a cold, narrow, common-place, unattractive man, remarkable for nothing but a stolid force of will. His moral qualities are of the same vulgar stamp. He has changed his political principles from motives of ambition. He has treated his superior officer with insolence to ingratiate himself with a faction, and has tarnished his personal honor by unmanly duplicity. Nobody ever heard that Gen. Grant is a model of sobriety.—Nobody ever heard of his being inside a place of worship. No instance or anecdote was ever told of his kindness to a sick or wounded soldier. He was never known to manifest a spontaneous interest in benevolent institutions. He never gave utterance to an elevated sentiment, or made an inspiring address to his soldiers. Even the generous ardor of patriotic youth, away from their homes, exposing their lives under his leadership, never, with the youthful tendency to hero-worship, regarded his person with affection. No eyes ever brightened in hospital at his approach. No warm outburst of admiring cheers habitually greeted him when he came in view of his soldiers. Nobody ever felt that he was "a man to be loved."

MUNICIPAL FINANCES.—From the recent Report of the City Treasurer, R. H. Battle, Esq., we gather that the receipts into the City Treasury, for the year 1867, were:

Cash rec'd from former Treasurer,	$ 43.36
" " J. J. Christophers, Clerk,	596.80

	$19,906 98
Disbursements were	19,933 54
Balance due City Treasurer,	$ 24 56

A considerable amount of outstanding claims for taxes, &c., remains to be collected.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Francis Ferrell, charged with making a personal exposure on Market Square, was fined $5.

Jack Reid, colored, charged with breaking open the Smoke house of J. F. Hutchins, and stealing therefrom 250 pounds of bacon, was returned to the County Court.

Levi Dargan, colored, charged with entering the house of J. King, and stealing Flour, Lard, a Shot Gun, and other articles, was returned to the County Court.

Private Andrew Benson, Co. B, 8th. U. S. Infantry, arrested at 11 o'clock at night for intoxication and disorderly conduct, was lodged in the Guard House and turned over to the military authorities.

Caswell Hurst, lodged in the Guard House for being intoxicated and disorderly, was discharged according to law.

GEN. CANBY AND THE MUNICIPAL AUTHORITIES.—The Mayor of the City and Commissioners called on Gen. Canby, yesterday, to pay him their respects. They are holding over beyond time, waiting for the District Commander either to order their continuance in office or to appoint their successors. We presume Gen. Canby will determine the matter in a few days.

FRESH WHITE SHAD.—We acknowledge the present of a fine shad from Oliver Roan, a colored man, whom the Senior formerly knew in Newbern. Oliver is engaged in the fish business, and we take pleasure in commending him to the support of our citizens. He will sell good fish, at as low prices as they can be afforded. He will be found at the Market, morning and evening.

KEYS FOUND.—A little girl found three small keys on a brass ring, on Tuesday, on Market Square. They can be had, by the owner, on applying at this office.

RAGGED AND TORN BILLS.—We have several times admonished our friends not to send us ragged or torn bills, unless they expect them to be discounted. All such bills are discounted at the Bank, from 5 to 25 per cent., according to the damage done them and the amount.

ENERGY.—We have seldom seen more energy displayed than has been by Capt. Hunter, of the firm of J. B. Hunter & Co. Portsmouth, Va., recently, in our city.—Anticipating a gradual rise in cotton, he came here three weeks ago and commenced purchasing. In the mean time, he was buying by telegraph and letter on the N. C. Railroad and at other points. His boldness inspired other buyers, until we have one of the best and quickest cotton markets now to be found. While he has been carrying on his purchases of cotton, he has been extending the business of his house in other directions. By means of circulars, he is waking up much interest in the Stave business, to which the Sentinel has several times directed public attention. It is gratifying to us to know that Capt. Hunter's energy has been well remunerated.

NORFOLK JOURNAL.—We were much gratified to see this enterprising and excellent Journal on our table, in its old dress, so soon after the disasters of the late fire which drove it from its former office. Its present office is in a more eligible position, being over Messrs. Wilson & Wilkes' store, on Main Street. The Journal lost considerably and its office has been much deranged, but, by the energy of Col. Lewellen, order will soon be restored. Long may the Journal and the Col. wave!

JUDGE JEFFRIES, taking a dislike to a witness who had a long beard, told him that if his conscience was as long as his beard, he had a swinging one. To which the countryman replied, "My Lord, if you measure consciences by beards, you have none at all."

CONFERENCE EXTRA-ORDINARY.—A meeting of the rival aspirants for Congressional honors, in the Metropolitan District, was held at a certain place, which shall be nameless, for the present, a few evenings since. The X. P. G. presided over the secret conclave, as Umpire, while Uncle Moses Patterson took his seat as prescriptive Vice.

The X. P. G. announced the object of the conference as being to attempt a compromise of conflicting pretensions, in order to a show of harmony in the approaching nominating Convention. He desired each one to present his claims, and, after having duly weighed them, he, in his august capacity as Head Centre, would arbitrate between them.

Harris, negro, of Wake, based his claims to paramount consideration, at the hands of the party, on the ground that he had done good service in the cause, for which, notwithstanding the base insinuations of Galloway, he had only received some few thousand dollars. Besides, he had dined with Senator Wilson, and, as the smiles and favor of the ladies constituted an important element of popularity in the campaign, he was generally regarded as irresistible with the "fair sex." This had repeatedly Cropped out.

McDonald, of Chatham, had the highest regard for the "honorable delegate" from Wake. He regarded him as the peer of Webster and Clay. He had an especial regard for the colored race. He learned his trade under a swarthy Vulcan. He was sincere in this expression of admiration for Mr. Harris,—he really thought he should be sent to the Senate, where his great abilities could be better appreciated. He assured both the X. P. G. and Uncle Moses, that he did not say this, for the purpose of getting Harris out of his way. He thought that he (Mc.) was entitled to the nomination, on the ground of his being so great a relief man. He could not boast of the fascinating powers of his honorable friend with the ladies, but his penchant for "cake and candy" would win the children to him, "to a man."

Ragland, of Granville, wiped his nose and sniffled audibly. He was a poor persecuted saint. He had been compelled to leave his county—"for his county's good," some people were uncharitable enough to assert. The alleged offence, which led to his expatriation, eminently fitted him, he thought, to be a member of Congress.

Thus the trio. Uncle Moses, being asked for a suggestion, declared his inability to express a preference. Never, since his "blessed deliverers" had delivered him of his watch, on the morning of the 13th. of April, 1865, had he been in such a quandary.

The X. P. G., himself, declared that it was a difficult matter to decide between the just and eminent claims of such excellent gentlemen and patriots. He would consult Col. Deweese, his right bower, and announce a decision on Saturday night next. Such is said to be the present aspect of the scrub race.

ORDERS FROM CHARLESTON.—It is a little remarkable that we have to depend upon Northern papers for our information as to official matters transpiring in this District. We find the following items in the Washington Evening Express:

IMPORTANT ORDER FROM CHARLESTON.—General Canby has just issued the following important order relative to the administration of justice in North and South Carolina:

"Provost courts will not entertain jurisdiction of any case, nor will post commanders refer any case for trial by such courts, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the post commander and shall be certified by him either—

First. That the case involves matters of difference between employer and employed respecting rights under provisions of military orders; or,

Second, That the proper State authorities have refused or unreasonably failed, or are unable, to take action needful for the due protection of persons or property; or,

Third. That there is good ground for believing, upon facts shown, which must be preserved of record, that impartial justice cannot be secured in the State courts, by reason of prejudice on account of race, color, or former condition."

DEFENDANT'S TO TESTIFY IN THEIR OWN BEHALF.—The War Department has received a copy of an order issued on the 3d. instant, by Gen. Canby, which declares that all civil tribunals and military commissions in South Carolina shall hereafter allow defendants in criminal cases to testify in their own behalf, as is permitted in several of the Northern States.

SAVING HIDES.—Leather is always in demand, yet the hides of many animals are destroyed or rendered worthless by neglect. The following suggestion, from the Shoe and Leather Reporter, is important to farmers and others. All new hides, to be preserved properly, should be well salted, and the following recipe should be observed:

"The proper way to salt hides is, to lay them out flat, flesh side up, and form a nearly square bed, say 12 by 15 feet, folding in the edges so as to make them as nearly solid as possible. Split the ear in the cords that run up the ear in each one, so as to make them lie out flat. Sprinkle the hides with two or three shovelsful of coarse salt, as the size may require—say, for a sixty to eighty pound hide, from ten to fifteen pounds of salt. At any rate, cover the hide well, as it need not be wasted; then let them lie in this from 15 to 20 days, after which take them up, shake the salt out, and use it again."

NORTH STATE PRODUCTIONS.—A correspondent of the Charlotte Democrat, at the Agricultural Fair recently held at New Orleans, makes the following statement:

"All the Southern States were represented at the Fair but North Carolina. Not a single sample of her products or manufactures was on the ground. An exhibition of the Rock Island Cassimeres, Alamance Checks, book and news printing Paper, and Scuppernong Wine, from the old State, would have attracted special attention, and no doubt tended to the profit of the manufacturers."

The wife of a journeyman carpenter in Cincinnati deserted him because he did not buy a house with freestone front, and a divorce has been granted him.

To fill a kerosene lamp one-fourth full of salt is said to insure it against explosion.—The gas is consumed, the flame is clearer, and the oil burns slower.

GEN. HANCOCK AND GEN. GRANT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, M.

The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, who is also an official at the White House, telegraphs the following:

"Gen. Grant has ordered Gen. Hancock to set aside the order, re-organizing the New Orleans City Councils. To this Gen. Hancock respectfully takes exception, and telegraphs Grant that, unless the latter revokes the order, he [Hancock] must ask to be relived from the command of the Fifth District."

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, P. M.

SENATE.—After unimportant business, the rights of American citizens abroad were resumed.

Banks, refusing all amendments and substitutes, moved the previous question, which was not seconded; when several substitutes and amendments were rushed in and the bill was postponed.

The appropriation bill was resumed and the House adjourned.

SENATE.—Sherman introduced a bill declaring the State of Alabama restored to rights of representation, which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Senate discussed the refusal of Railroad Companies in the District to give equal rights to negroes in cars.

Without further business, and after Executive session, adjourned.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND GOSSIP.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, P. M.

The allegation that the Chiefs of the Freedmen's Bureau favor such social and civil relations between the races, as approximate to amalgamation, is seriously discussed by moderate Republicans, who have been favorable to the Bureau's continuance.

Gen. McClellan is mentioned in connection with the St. James Mission.

The Whiskey metre commission is in session—Prof. Henry, President

The following is Sherman's Bill, introduced to-day, and referred to the Judiciary Committee:

"Whereas, The people of the State of Alabama have, in strict compliance with the 5th section of the Act of March 2nd, 1867, entitled an Act to provide for the more efficent government of the Rebel States, framed a Constitution of government, in conformity with the Constitution of the United States, framed by a Convention of delegates in compliance with said Act; and

Whereas, The said Constitution has been ratified by a majority of the qualified persons voting on the question of ratification, and said Constitution contains all the guarantees required by said Act:

Therefore, be it enacted and declared by the Senate and House of Representatives, That the State of Alabama is entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted, on their taking the oath prescribed by law."

The noon dispatch, regarding Grant and Hancock's correspondence, is substantially correct.—Further details inaccessible. Grant and Stanton had a prolonged conversation to-day

The Arkansas Constitution enfranchises females and negroes, and makes them competent as Jurors. It disfranchises those disfranchised by the Reconstruction acts, and those voting against the Constitution.

ATLANTA, Feb. 12, P. M.

Aaron Alpeora Bradley, (negro,) was, by a unanimous vote, expelled to-day for a gross insult offered the Convention.

The 3rd section of the Franchise Committee's report, which proposed to disfranchise, until Jan. 1st, 1869, all who cannot register under the Sherman bill, was defeated by the adoption of Miller's substitute.

This disfranchises only those convicted of treason, embezzlement of public funds, malfeasance in office, crime punishable by law with imprisonment in the Penitentiary, bribery, and insane and idiots.

FLORIDA CONVENTION.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 12, P. M.

A resolution asking Congress to repeal the Cotton tax was adopted.

The Sergeant-at-arms was directed to notify the minority members that the Convention was in regular session, and their presence was required. Only three of the minority have taken their seats, since the return of the majority.

It is understood that Gen. Meade leaves the subject of eligibility to the Convention

A resolution was adopted, calling for an investigation of the conduct of certain colored delegates.

They are charged with making incendiary speeches at a mass meeting on the 8th, in which they encouraged riotous proceedings against three delegates, who had gone with the absent majority, proposing to tar and feather, hang or burn them

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public, in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

OLD ROMANCE.

Have you ever indulged your fancy
In a dream of old romance?
And heard and seen, with a fearful joy,
The crash of the shivering lance?
Have you gazed, with quaint Sir Walter,
On the radiant scenes of old—
The "Passage of Arms at Ashby,"
And the "Field of the Cloth of Gold"?

Have you watched in the tournament's melee,
The deeds of some dauntless knight,
Who glittered in gorgeous armor,
While he fought with a fierce delight?
Have you seen, when the lists were over,
Where the eyes of the lovely glow,
The Queen of Beauty, with courtly grace,
The conqueror's crown bestow?

I have dreamed such dreams in my younger days;
But they visit me seldom now,
For sorrow the trace of sterner thoughts
Has written upon my brow.
Yet I welcome them ever with gladness,
And sadden when they depart;
Though they only wait, like summer friends,
On the happy and light of heart.

They instil a beautiful spirit—
These dreams of the olden time;
For the knights of our fancy are ever brave,
And courteous and free from crime;
And the ladies all are peerless,
And gentle, and kind of heart;
And of traits we love in visions
We may win for our own a part.

BOUNDLESSNESS OF CREATION.—About the time of the invention of the telescope, another instrument was formed, which laid open a scene no less wonderful, and rewarded the inquisitive spirit of man. This was the microscope. The one led me to see a system in every star; the other, leads me to see a world in every atom. The one taught me that this mighty globe, with the whole burden of its people and its countries, is but a grain of sand on the high field of immensity; the other teaches me that every grain of sand may harbor within it the tribes and families of a busy population. The one told me of the insignificance of the world I tread upon; for it tells me that in the leaves of every forest, and in the flowers of every garden, and in the waters of every rivulet, there are worlds teeming with life; and numberless as are the glories of the firmament. The one has suggested to me, that beyond and above all that is visible to man, there may be fields of creation which sweep immeasurably along and carry the impress of the Almighty's hand to the remotest scenes of the universe; the other suggests to me, that within and beneath all that minuteness which the aided eye of man has been able to explore, there may be a region of invisibles; and that, could we draw aside the mysterious curtain which shrouds it from our senses, we might see a theatre of as many wonders as astronomy has unfolded, a universe within the compass of a point so small as to elude all the powers of the microscope, but where the wonder working God finds room for the exercise of all his attributes, where he can raise a new creation of worlds, and fill and animate them all with the evidence of his glory.

SELECTING SEED CORN.—An Illinois correspondent of the Independent writes: "Last spring and early summer there was some discussion about selecting seed corn. Some advised shelling the tips off and reserving the middle of the ear for planting. One man said one grain on the same cob was as good as another. Had he been a raiser of corn he would have known better. Some ten years ago I planted an ear of corn to test the difference between the produce of the kernels of both ends and the middle of the same ear, and will give you the result. The soil was just alike, the cultivation the same, and the crop very different. I planted the first two rows from the large end of the ear, the next two rows from the middle and the last two rows from the tip or small end; and planted all the same morning. The large end produced fair sized ears, with irregular rows, much as you will find them at that end of the ear. The middle kernels produced large ears, mostly straight rowed and fair. The tips brought forth nubbins only; there was not a fair ear on the two rows of corn. This is an experimental fact which you may use as you choose. I have raised corn, more or less, for forty years; and now plant only about half, or at least two-thirds of the kernels on each ear of corn; and I generally raise good crops."

In a school not far from Springfield, Massachusetts, the teacher recently proposed to each of the juvenile pupils to write a composition on the employment of his or her parents. One little girl, whose father was a physician, drew her picture from real life as follows:

"There was a little girl,
And she was very sick;
She sent for my father,
And died very quick."

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEAD'QRS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBT.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of five hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized, will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 20th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
